

WIDOW OF SIXTY WEDS
BOY ONE-THIRD HER AGE.

Scornful Neighbors Give a Charity and Pelt Home of Ill-Matched Couple with Missiles.

(Special to The Evening World.)
MERRIDEN, Conn., April 12.—Mrs. Alice Wilbur, aged sixty, and twice a widow, was married here last evening to Benjamin Hitchcock, a youth of twenty. Neighbors did not take kindly to the wedding and gave the couple a shower, showering the house with missiles. The police finally had to come to the protection of the newly-married pair.

Benny Hitchcock has been paying the women attention for about a year. He is the son of a carpenter and has been working at the factory of the Meriden Fire Arms Company. His bride is employed at the Parker shoe shop and she announced that when Benny married her he would not have to work, but that she would be the bread winner. The serenaders sang repeatedly "Everingly Works but Benny, He Changes Around." The Rev. P. B. Stockdale, who married the couple, says that they came to him in the regular way and that he could do nothing else as they were apparently in their right minds. Benny has a local reputation as a fast bicyclist.
